Petrograd Admits Loss of
Two Villages and Berlin
Tells of Storming Mountain Summit in a Bayonet Charge.

British Report Further Advance on North Bank of Ancre and in the Neighborhood of Beaucourt.

Servians Continue Their Advance Toward Monastir
and Occupy Several Cerna Villages.

BERLIN, by wire to Sayville,
Nov. 17.—Bavarian reserve troops in a bayonet charge captured the summit of Rungul Mountain, along the Moldavian frontier of Rumania and held it against heavy counter attacks, according to today's War Office announcement.

A Rumanian position west of the Fredal road was penetrated by German and Austro-Hungarian forces.
In the Rothenthurm Pass region the capture of more than 1500 prisoners and elsewhere the taking of 600 prisoners and 13 machine guns from the Rumanians
is reported.

The statement says:
"Front of Archduke Charles Francis:
In the Gerges Mountain (Northern Transylvania section), on the heights
east of the Putna Valley, the Rumanians are resisting our attacks tenaciously. On the frontier east Kendiaschely Barvarian reserve infantry regiment No. 2,
which already had given proof frequently of its valor, captured at the point of the bayonet the summit of Rungul Mountain and maintained it against strong attacks.

"West of the Fredal road (in Rumania)
German and Austro-Hungarian troops broke into the Rumanian position.

"On the other portions of the Transylvania front we captured more than 600
Rumanians and 13 machine guns. Troops report that the Rumanian population is taking part in the fighting.

"Front of Field Marshal Mackensen (Dobruja): Near Silistria the artillery fighting yesterday was more spirited than on preceding days."

BRITISH ADVANCE FARTHER ON ANCRE

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Another attack along the Ancre yesterday netted further gains for the British. The War Office today announced that the British front had been extended east from Beau-
court along the north bank of the Ancre.

Major-General F. B. Maurice, chief director of military operations at the War Office, in an interview with the Associated Press, predicted that the British
front had been extended east from Beau-
court along the north bank of the Ancre.

"Our success on the Ancre," said Gen.
Maurice, "means that we are not going to give the enemy much rest this winter.
It means that whenever weather conditions permit we are going to attack and subject the enemy to unceasing pressure during the coming month,
so as to prevent as far as possible the Germans from establishing themselves
in new positions."

Rumanians Say Germans Lost Six Craft
in Finland Attack.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—A dispatch to Reuters' Telegram Co. from Petrograd says:

"The Admiralty staff has issued a communication announcing that, in accordance with the latest information of the recent German naval attack in the Gulf of Finland and comparing the number of explosions heard in the fog with the reports from the Russian warships engaged, it is possible to affirm that the Germans lost between six and nine torpedo boats. This supposition, the communication adds, is confirmed by the examination of wreckage, which also shows that the destroyed vessels were
of the most modern type and the biggest vessels in this class."

British Attacks Repulsed, Berlin Announces.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—British troops last evening attacked the German lines near Beaucourt, north of the Ancre brook, the War Office announced today. This attack failed, as did a night attack to the west of Le Sars, in the Somme area,
the official statement declares.

On the road from Flers to Thillois German troops drove the British westward and captured five machine guns.

MRS. M'ADOO DRESSES IN 20 MINUTES, THINKS IT IS RECORD

Then Comes Along Mrs. Carter H.
Harrison Jr. and Says She Once
Did It in Thirteen Minutes.
CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Mrs. Eleanor McAdoo, daughter of President Wilson, told newspaper reporters in Dallas,
Tex., yesterday that she had just set a world's record for dressing in 20 minutes.
Mrs. Carter H. Harrison Jr., young
North Side society matron, stepped up and nonchalantly recollecting a few statistics of her own, shattered Mrs.
McAdoo's mark.
"Once on a time," said Mrs. Harrison, "I bathed and dressed in 13 minutes. I don't think I could do it again, but I did once. Thirty minutes is a good average period for dressing in the morning—just to dress. Twenty minutes is fast time."

CAMPAIGN BROKE WOMEN DOWN

Four on Woman's Hughes' Special
Made Ill by Strenuous Travel.
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Three members of the Woman's Hughes campaign train, in addition to Mrs. Inez Milholland Bolles, who is seriously ill in Los Angeles, broke down as a result of the campaign in the West, according to Miss Alice Paul, national chairman of the Woman's Party. "When men speak of long campaign trips," Miss Paul declared, "they have private cars and physical directors. Our girls traveled on small allowances, often taking upper berths and going without many comforts."

Members of the Woman's Party who have been able to reach New York will be guests at a dinner tonight given by prominent suffragists.

HILLSTROM'S ASHES IN PACKETS

They Will Be Distributed to I. W. W.
Delegates in Chicago.
CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—The ashes of Joe Hillstrom, an organizer for the Industrial Workers of the World, who was shot for murder by the State of Utah
a year ago, will be distributed in 400
parchment packets to delegates to the tenth annual convention of the I. W. W., which will begin here Sunday.
William D. Haywood, general organizer of the I. W. W., has had the arresting Hillstrom's ashes brought from Graceland Cemetery to the headquarters of the organization.

next spring.
At the same time they formed an agreement that the proceeds, or part as necessary, would be used to defray expenses to see the games in a world's baseball series next year.

EVIDENCE TO SHOW CAREER OF CRIME LED BY LEWISES

Prosecution Witnesses to Prove That the Brothers Were Automobile and Wire Thieves.

MOTIVE FOR MURDERS

State Maintains McKenna and Dillon Were Slain Because They "Knew Too Much."

At the third day's session of the trial of Ora Otis Lewis and his brother, Roy Joe Lewis, for the murder of Motor Cycle Policeman John McKenna, the State
today at the outset centered its efforts on establishing that the brothers were automobile and wire thieves and that they "put McKenna out of the way"
because they knew he had discovered stolen wire in their automobile.

The trail of the evidence was followed back to Mexico, Mo., to prove that the Lewis brothers had stolen wire there
the day before the murder and to show that they were retreating to St. Louis with stolen goods when McKenna chased them.

It is apparent that the prosecution will make considerable capital out of the fact that after overhauling the Lewis in an alley near the oil filling station at 618 Whittier street he killed
the brothers and that later in the office of the filling station he said to the Lewis brothers: "Where did you get it?"

The State will contend that the answer to this question was the shot which killed McKenna. According to this theory the motive for the killing was that McKenna knew too much and the State would be justified in killing him
because "dead men tell no tales."

Stress is being laid on the likelihood that McKenna knew too much and the State would be justified in killing him
because "dead men tell no tales."

John Fish, 11 years old, of Mexico, Mo., at today's session testified that a bicycle was stolen from the front porch of his home the night of April 6 and that this was the same bicycle which was found in the Lewis brothers'
home after they had killed Policeman Dillon.

Daniel Holt of Mexico, Mo., testified that on Wednesday, April 6, the night before the murder, he saw a large automobile and a small one standing near an unoccupied portion of an electric line right of way in Mexico. When he first saw the machines,
he was a child, but as he approached the lights were turned on and the machines moved away.

Holt said he caught a glimpse of a man in one of the machines, but could not identify him as one of the Lewis brothers.

Arrest of Joe Lewis.
Patrolman John Hynes of the Newstead Avenue Station told of arresting Roy Lewis at the Atholene avenue
home of the Lewis family about 9:30
p. m. the day of the murder. On cross-examination, he denied he struck Lewis or otherwise mistreated him.

Arthur W. Gernhart, a machinist, of 5018 St. Louis avenue, told of seeing two mud-spattered automobiles,
well known to him, in the vicinity of Van and College streets, at 8:35 a. m., April 7. He saw a man get out of the Ford and carry something wrapped in a doormat to the larger car. The man then got into the larger car, and the other larger, abandoning the Ford, where the police afterwards found it. He could not identify Roy Lewis as the man he saw, but said
he was of the same general build.

Proceedings for Testimony.
Assistant Circuit Attorney McCullough
today said the State had precedents for introducing testimony as to the Dillon murder in proving their case based on the McKenna murder. The courts ruled this could be done, he said, in the case of McLaughlin and Collins, who first robbed a bank and then shot a Policeman detective, and also in the case of the Spaugh brothers, one of whom killed a Deputy Sheriff and later, after fleeing to the Ozark Mountains, killed a negro.
In each instance the State was permitted to introduce evidence as to both crimes on the theory that evidence of a second crime, committed in an attempt to escape the consequences of an earlier
one is admissible.

Milton Politz, 9 years old, of 4214
Holly avenue, and Charles Bergman, 10, of 4214 Holly avenue are among the witnesses whom the State planned to call today. These boys were on their way to school and were passing the Lewis brothers' garage in the rear of 4214 Holly avenue the day of the murder when they saw Policeman Dillon struggling with a man in the garage and heard him say, "Don't do that." Another man in the garage then closed the door and they saw no more.

Another witness summoned for today
is Helen Wilson, 9 years old, who found Dillon's body where the Lewis brothers had buried it in a ravine in St.
Louis County.

Falls to Identify Roy Lewis.
At yesterday's afternoon session Mrs.
Corinne Simms of 401 Maryland avenue testified that when the murder was committed she conducted a rooming house at 412 Delmar boulevard, in the rear of which was the garage in which the Lewis brothers kept their Ford machine.

Mrs. Simms said the garage was rented to the Lewis brothers.

BAPTISTS WANT CONDUCT OF GEN. FUNSTON INVESTIGATED

Pass Resolution for Congressional Inquiry into Alleged Restriction Against Evangelistic Services.

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 17.—The Alabama Baptist State convention passed a resolution last night demanding that Congress investigate the conduct of Gen.
Frederick Funston.

The resolution was based on alleged restrictions imposed by Gen. Funston after a request of the Texas Baptist convention to conduct evangelistic services among American soldiers on the Mexican border.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 17.—The Baptist General Association of Virginia has adopted a protest against the reported action of Major-General Funston, in informing the Rev. Dr. J. B. Gambrell that he could conduct religious services
among soldiers at the border but must not tell them they were "lost sinners."

Funston intimates he may bring libel actions.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 17.—Baptists who are protesting the statement of my position regarding the kind of church work acceptable in border camp have better put their property in the names of their wives," was the comment made today by Gen. Funston on the action of the Baptist General Association of Virginia at Norfolk, yesterday, in adopting a resolution protesting against the General's alleged attitude. He intimated that he might bring libel suits against his critics.

The controversy started by Gen. Funston telling Dr. J. B. Gambrell, representing the Texas Baptist State Board,
that he did not want men in the army
to be considered as "lost souls."

ORDINANCE FOR A WIDER OLIVE STREET IS APPROVED

Public Service Board Acts on Proposed Improvement Between 14th and Channel.

The Board of Public Service today approved an ordinance for widening and improving Olive street, from Fourteenth street to Channing avenue. The widening would be accomplished by adding three feet on each side, taken from the sidewalk, thus increasing the width of the street from 26 to 32 feet between curbs.

The paving would be wood blocks,
excepting between car tracks, at an estimated cost of $4,000.

Owners representing 28 per cent of property in the area to be taxed have signed a petition approving the project. The board will notify property owners affected of the proposed improvement and allow 15 days for filing
a petition of remonstrance.

ROOSEVELT TO MAKE TRIP TO PACIFIC ISLANDS IN FEBRUARY

Chooses Fiji, Samoa and Hawaiian Groups for Healthful Climate and Rugged Topography.
NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—President Roosevelt will make a trip to the Fiji, Samoa and Hawaiian Islands in February. It was announced here today. Mrs. Roosevelt is to accompany him. Plans for the trip, it is said, have been completed.

It is understood the president chose these Pacific islands because they are highly esteemed by medical men for their climate, and also because their rugged mountains and volcanoes will give plenty of opportunity for the victorious kind of outing he enjoys.

trator, from 173 to 127 votes.

SUES FRIEND FOR AUTO MISHAP

Woman Invited on Ride Asks for $5000.

Mrs. Bertha Heitler of 2009 Shenandoah avenue today filed suit for $5000 in the Circuit Court against Mrs. Hattie Schmitt of 3213 McKean avenue for injuries alleged to have been received in an accident to Mrs. Schmitt's automobile
Oct. 11.

The plaintiff alleges she was riding in the car with Mrs. Schmitt at the owner's invitation and that Mrs. Schmitt drove it recklessly, causing it to go into a ditch on Natural Bridge road at Pine Lawn, St. Louis County.

Mrs. Heitler suffered bruises all over the body; mental anguish and loss of sleep, the petition alleges.

HOOTS ACCEPTED SHAKY REINSURERS WITHOUT INQUIRY

Receiver Admits He Made No Investigation When Continental Took Over K. of H.

OFFICERS QUIT CHICAGO

Attorneys Ruler & Dyer of St.
Louis Got $55,000 and Belleville Man $35,000.

Charles A. Houts, former United States District Attorney here, who is receiver for the Knights of Honor, today told a Post-Dispatch reporter, who sought the information from him, of his connection with the plan of reinsurance
of that fraternal order in the Continental Beneficial Association of Chicago, a similar organization, which at the time the plan was adopted was under investigation in four states.

A receivership suit against the Continental concern was filed in Chicago this afternoon by Insurance Commissioner
Potts of Illinois, a dispatch to the Post-Dispatch says. The suit also asked for an accounting of the funds entrusted to the company, and for an injunction to keep the officers from disposing of the company's assets, and to require them to report the whereabouts of assets which,
in the past two days, they are alleged to have removed from the State.

Judge Sullivan directed Assistant Attorney-General Creighton, through whom the suit was filed, to prepare the necessary orders for the injunction
and the appointment of a receiver.

What Suit is Based On.
The suit is based on a report made to Commissioner Potts by two of his deputies, a copy of which was also furnished to Walter K. Chorn, Insurance Commissioner of Missouri. The report was incorporated in the petition.

The story of the Knights of Honor reinsurance deal, as shown by the Illinois investigation and by a simultaneous inquiry made by a Post-Dispatch reporter, was told exclusively in yesterday's Post-Dispatch. A phase of the matter into which a court inquiry is now likely is the alleged payment of nearly $55,000 to Attorney Max Ruler and Horace L. Dyer of St. Louis, and of nearly $35,000 to J. B. Bordeaux, a Belleville lawyer. Of the Ruler-Dyer fee, $15,000 came from the assets of the Knights of Honor, for their work in bringing about a receivership, and the Continental concern it said to have contracted to pay them nearly $40,000 for their work in bringing about the reinsurance deal. Bordeaux's fee was in connection with the reinsurance transaction.

Receiver Houts, in answer to questions, said he said he had not made any investigation of the Continental Beneficial Association. He said he did not know that at that time it was being investigated by State officers in four states and that he relied upon the report given him by D. A.
Brown, president of the Continental,
and taken from a fraternal insurance manual, to base his conclusions about the financial status of the order before approving of its deal with the Knights of Honor.

Houts showed the reporter the manual
in which he had looked up the company's rating, which he said he found among the papers in the offices of the Knights of Honor when he took over the receivership. It is the Fraternal Monitor, published in Rochester, N. Y., and showed that in Jan. 1914, the assets of the Continental were $127,225.62 and its liabilities $20,179.33. The fund had 36 branch lodges and 11,314 members.

But Plans Before Houts.
Houts said Brown came to St. Louis shortly after he was appointed receiver
for the K. of H. in the United States District Court, and proposed a plan of reinsurance of its members in the Continental.

Houts assured him that the company's financial condition was good, and Brown said he then looked it up in the Fraternal Monitor. The plan suggested by Brown, he said, seemed to be the only feasible one which could be adopted to get reinsurance for the members of the K. of H. as Brown appeared to take all of them in without asking them to submit to a medical examination.

After many of the members accepted
the reinsurance plan and began the payment of their premiums to the Continental, there were deaths among their number and then, Houts said, he discovered that Brown and the Continental were not living up to the terms of the agreement made with him in looking for his approval of the plan.

The death benefits were not paid and the Continental disallowed many claims on the ground that the insured had not been in good health at the time they were admitted to the Continental he said.

The plan, however, looked good in him when it was originally presented and it was taken before Judge Triebel in Little Rock, Ark., for discussion before it was approved. Houts said, Brown appeared before Judge Triebel and made the same representations to him that had been made to Houts, the receiver declared, before Judge Triebel decided the plan was a good one.

Houts said he knew nothing of the connection of Attorney Dyer and Ruler with the Continental until recently, and that it had then come to him in the vaguest sort of way. He had no dealings with either, he said, while they represented the Continental.

A letter to the Times mentions an instance of a lady living in an expensive
hotel who feeds her four Pekinese daily
on tidbits cut from lamb cutlets.

WOMAN WHIPS REAL ESTATE MAN IN STREET

Crowd Sees Hotel Proprietor Use
Dog Lash on Witness in Suit Against Her.

In the presence of a large number of persons on their way to moving picture theater in the neighborhood, Mrs. M.
B. Weisberg, 30 years old, proprietor of the Normandie Hotel, Franklin and Theresa, Ky., was seen yesterday
real estate dealer with a dog whip on Franklin avenue just east of Grand avenue at 8 o'clock last night.

The beating carried out a threat which Mrs. Weisberg made yesterday in justice of the Peace Gamble's court
when Groves appeared as a witness against her in a case in which she is being sued for rent and possession of the hotel. Today she told a Post-Dispatch reporter that after leaving the courthouse she brought the dog whip for $1.25, intending to use it on Groves.

Mrs. Weisberg said that Groves, formerly a guest at the Normandie, induced her to lease the hotel from Albert Heitler, her husband's brother-in-law, and that she had been paying him

MOVIE CONCERN SUED, NEVER MADE A MOVIE

Hasn't Even a Movie Camera,
but Salesman Wants $500

Suit was filed yesterday in Justice Gorman's court by Ulysses M. Daley, a salesman, against George W. Helm-rich, Harry K. Lange and the Mississippi Valley Motion Picture Corporation for $500 which he alleges is due him as commissions on the sale of stock in the company.

The company gained possession of

has occupied the grounds and buildings
there since early in July, but it has not produced a photograph, nor has it yet acquired a motion picture camera.

Departure Rather Unexpected.

Although the Deutschland apparently had been ready for her dash for some days, her departure was rather unexpected. Her skipper, Paul Koenig, spent the evening in his leisurely manner about the city. He called at two hotels and shook hands with friends. When asked about his sailing, the captain merely smiled and said he did not know.

After leaving a theater the captain strolled down to the State pier, stopping to converse with persons on the way. Meantime thorough preparations had been made for departing. The machinery of the boat had been tested days before and the craft was provisioned.

First, the lights of the pier were extinguished, and the launch Efec of the North German Lloyd liner Willahad hurried down the river to see that the course was clear. Then the steel net that protected the entrance to the pocket was hauled up.

Farewells to the Willahad's crew were said quietly. At 1 o'clock the tug Cassie and T. A. Scott Jr. steamed up to the pier. The pontoon, bearing a high fence, that stood between the Willahad and the dock, was pulled to one side, and at 1:20 o'clock the Deutschland slipped silently down the Thames.

Deutschland's Departure.

The Deutschland passed the United States cruiser Columbia in the lower harbor at 1:45 o'clock. Several passing steamers and the Columbia turned their searchlights on the boat and blew their whistles.

Some excitement was caused early in the evening, when the report was circulated that a man with a stick of dynamite had eluded the guards and entered the stockade which guarded the Deutschland. The police said the incident had not been reported to them.

The Deutschland arrived in New London on Nov. 1 for her second trip to this country. Her first record-making voyage was to Baltimore last summer.

MOVE TO INQUIRE INTO BIG FEES PAID IN THE K. OF H. DEAL

money from the Continental they are said to have received as commissions as set forth in the report of Commissioner Potts of Illinois, and pointed out that there was no necessity for the Continental to employ anyone to represent them in the transaction, as the deal was approved chiefly on the representations of Brown.

Attorney-General Lucey's plan for a receivership suit in Chicago against the Continental was upset by the sudden departure of the Continental concern's officials from the city carrying their books and portable assets. He believes they have gone to Philadelphia, where the concern formerly had headquarters. He plans, however, to file a suit, asking the courts to call on the Continental's officials for an accounting. He estimates the company's liabilities, chiefly death claims which it has not the funds to pay, at about $200,000.

In the report made to Commissioner Potts by Examiners Vance Smith and C. W. Armstrong, the large fees paid to Ruler, Dyer and Bordeaux were shown. Dyer is the son of Judge D. J. Dyer of the United States District Court, because of Horace Dyer's connection with the reinsuring deal, Judge Dyer disqualified himself in all litigation bearing on that deal, and these matters have since been handled by Judge Pollock.

$15,000 Fee Given.

The report, a copy of which has been furnished to Walter K. Chorn, insurance commissioner of Missouri, states that Ruler and Dyer represented the complainants in the receivership proceeding against the Knights of Honor of Missouri, for their services in this case, a fee of $15,000 was allowed them from the assets of the order.

In addition to this, the report said, Ruler and Dyer made a contract with the Continental concern, by which, for their services in the deal by which the Continental reinsured the Knights of Honor, they were to receive $20,000. Attorney Bordeaux was also employed, bringing about the reinsurance of the K. of H. in the Continental. For this service, he was to receive 17 1/2 per cent of the first year's collections of the K. of H. This commission, the report says, amounted to $24,438, and was divided by Bordeaux with Frank B. Slinger, former treasurer of the order.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

A SIMPLE, SAFE, RELIABLE WAY

People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying: Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and set from any good drug store a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Know just how fast you are losing weight, keep a single dose until you are down to the ideal.

Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take and helps digestion. Even a few capsules have been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight. Foodstuffs become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter and more buoyant spirit takes possession of your whole being.

Even those who suffer from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial. Dr. Wilson Drug Co. can supply you.—ADV.

and C. P. Gaylord, now secretary of the Continental.

In the first year following the reinsurance deal, the report states, the Continental received from the K. of H. $107,107.67, of which $72,015.52, nearly three-eighths of the whole, was paid to Ruler, Dyer and Bordeaux.

The death claims paid during the year amounted to $473.23, and a payment of $23,568.61 was made to Charles A. Houts, receiver of the K. of H., for the benefit of the estate.

Receiver Houts, who acts under appointment of Federal Judge Dyer and Tribner, paid a dividend of 35 per cent on death claims against the K. of H. On these claims, the report says, 15 to 20 per cent remains to be distributed.

Besides the large payments to the three lawyers named in the K. of H. case, the Continental is said, in the report, to have paid $100,000 to one George R. Kendall, for getting other fraternal organizations to reinsure themselves with the Continental.

Report of Commissioner.

The report of the Illinois Commissioner sets forth that the Continental Beneficial Association has engaged in the business of taking over fraternal societies and combining them into one membership by reinsuring the members. In each case, it is stated, large sums of money were paid out of the treasury of the fraternal organization taken over, to various persons as "commissions" for engineering the transaction. Those sums sometimes were as high as $75,000.

It is charged that, at the same time, claims of persons reinsured have been refused. Since the concern reinsured the Knights of Honor of Missouri, the records of the society show that it disbursed $75,000 in commissions, has received $100,000 in premiums, and has only paid about $7000 in claims. Claims aggregating a large sum have been filed and rejected, on the ground that the members of the Knights of Honor society having died within such a short time after the reinsuring, must have been in bad health at the time of reinsuring, and under the bylaws of the Continental Beneficial Association they were therefore not eligible as members.

The Continental, according to the Illinois report, took no steps to require medical examination when it accepted the premiums of the members. In addition, the society passed a bylaw after the reinsurance, scaling benefits heavily where deaths were caused by certain diseases common to old age. As the average age of the Knights of Honor members was over 60, this worked a great hardship.

HEARING ON SALOON AT DELMAR GARDEN ENTRANCE

County Excise Board Receives Arguments on Jannopoulo Application.

"Will Give Decision on Monday."

The Board of Excise Commissioners of St. Louis County today heard the arguments of county residents who oppose the granting of a license to J. C. Jannopoulo, proprietor of Delmar Garden, to open a saloon at the garden entrance.

Luther T. Ward, president of the University City School Board, argued against it, on the ground that 500 children would have to pass it every school day; Joseph H. Ames, an attorney, represented the University City protesters, and several persons from the Crève Coeur Lake line objected, on the ground that their wives would have to change cars in front of the saloon.

Jannopoulo admitted that he operated the saloon for several days recently without State or county license, and Excise Commissioner "Showell" testified that this fact would be against him. Jannopoulo received permission from the Board of Aldermen of University City last week to operate the saloon. The Excise Commissioners will give their decision Monday.

ACTUAL TRIAL OF M'DANIEL FOR MURDER WILL BEGIN TOMORROW

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 17.—The State's eight challenges have been decided on in the selection of the jury to try Prosecutor Oscar D. McDaniel, who is charged with having murdered his wife, and counsel for the defense worked today on the list of 20 names they will ask to have stricken from the special panel of 60.

Notice has been given that the list be completed today so that the actual trial of the case may begin tomorrow.

McDaniel conferred yesterday with a woman, who, it is said, will be one of the State's witnesses. She was a girl friend of the prosecutor's slain wife. One of the State's lawyers discussed the visit of the prosecutor to the woman's downtown office, said it might lead to a motion to cancel McDaniel's bail.

When he testified at the Coroner's inquest, McDaniel said he went to a roadhouse on the right of the murder to see whether the law was being violated, complaint having been made by the woman whom he visited yesterday. She is said to have told the authorities recently that her complaint was made a year before the murder.

PIERRE, S. D., Nov. 17.—Correction of errors in the preliminary count of returns indicated that the Richards "primary" law has been defeated. If the measure had carried candidates for the nomination for President of the United States would have had to come to South Dakota for joint debates or remain off the primary ballot.

3 ERRAND BOYS BURY PAPERS, TELL OF BEING KIDNAPED

Employers Recover Valuable Reports While Kids Confess to Playing All Afternoon on River Front.

John Stephens, 635 Norfolk avenue; Thomas Thompson, 2811 Missouri avenue; and Hyman Braidman, 1307 Tower Grove avenue, all 14 years old, errand boys for the St. Louis Retailers' Credit Bureau, were given valuable reports to deliver to the concern's clients yesterday morning, but went down to the river and played along the banks all day. Just before nightfall they buried the papers in the sand.

Today, when they returned to work, the boys told the manager a story to the effect that they had been kidnapped by three negroes at Sixth and Locust streets yesterday morning, carried to the river and piled into a rowboat, and taken to a point near Jefferson Barracks, where they were put out, the negro kidnapers continuing on to New Orleans.

Detectives were called and soon got the true version of the missing papers, which were recovered from their place in the sand. The boys were discharged and sent home.

CONFESSES TO DOUBLE MURDER

Arkansas Negro Killed Woman and Fifteen-Months Child.

ASHDOWN, Ark., Nov. 17.—John Hawkins, a negro, 24 years old, last night confessed, according to officers here, to having murdered Mrs. Ben Diles, wife of a railroad section foreman, and her 15-months-old daughter here on the afternoon of Nov. 2. Rewards totaling $100 were outstanding.

The negro was taken to the penitentiary at Little Rock. Officers say Hawkins admitted he shot Mrs. Diles and clubbed her child to death when the man ran on his demand for money. He ransacked the house, securing $15, and overlooked $250 hidden in a bed.

Is the United States to be Supreme in World Trade and Commerce?

You, as a business man, must help to answer this question. Are you prepared to do so?

WAR is working vast economic and commercial changes. It is forcing a mighty, world-wide trade evolution which is shaping the destiny of Commercial America.

Today American business rides the tide of great industrial prosperity resulting from an enormous foreign business, including war orders.

Tomorrow we may be swept into a new position of commercial supremacy.

This is one of the unmistakable signs of the times. War has paralyzed the agricultural and industrial energies of the only nations which rival America; it has crippled their commercial facilities.

Ours is the one country which has the resources to take care of the material needs of the world. We raise the crops, we own the mines, we have the mills, and—we have the men. It is for the manufacturers, the business men and the bankers of America to say how great she shall be among the nations.

Encyclopaedia Britannica "Handy Volume" Issue

Within the 30,000 pages of this wonderful library of facts you will find a complete and authoritative history of men and nations. The Britannica points out their distinguishing differences—will teach you something of their characteristics. It will give you an intimate knowledge of fundamental conditions which are the basis of the present-day business and trade of nations. It will acquaint you with business customs and methods the world over which you must know in order to do business in other countries.

You cannot sell goods in England, Germany, France, Japan, China or Argentina on the same basis that you do in Indiana or Oregon. "Thirty days and 2%" doesn't mean anything in Brazil or South Africa. "National Advertising" hasn't the same pull in China as in the United States.

Things are different the world over and, because they are, you need the Britannica to tell you in its practical, interesting and authoritative way why they are different and to describe the differences.

The Britannica is a work to have always within quick reach of yourself and your head men. Take the National City Bank of New York—one of the largest and most successful banks in America. Not only do the president and other officers own and rely on the Britannica, but the bank has a set specially for the constant use of all its employees.

In all, there are 41,000 separate articles and 500,000 indexed facts in the Britannica. They don't all pertain to business—they cover the whole range of human knowledge—every subject under the sun. But the articles which do deal with business—with manufacture, trade, commerce, industry, finance, banking, tariff, commercial treaties, trusts, commodities, exchange and the like in each and every country—are counted by the thousand.

But valuable as the Britannica would be to you in business, you would find it even more so in a general way. It deepens your whole interest in life. It answers every question prompted by the daily news and your contact with men. It puts you in touch with bright minds in other lines of activity. It is a guide to literature, art, science, invention. It is of supreme advantage to your children, opening up a treasure store of knowledge suited to the child mind.

To obtain this great work in the popular "Handy Volume" size, printed on genuine India paper, you must act at once. The war has stopped the manufacture of India paper—the remaining sets of the Britannica are all that can be printed on this famous paper.

These will be sold on a first payment of

Only $1 with balance payable at the low rate of $3 a month for the cheapest binding. Think of it! The greatest book of facts ever published—29 volumes, 44,000,000 words—and at a low price and terms that any one can afford.

DANDRUFF GOES! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY AND GLOSSY

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments. Try this!

Hair stops coming out and every particle of dandruff disappears.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluff and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.—ADV.

STEPS TO CONTEST THE ELECTION OF GARDNER TAKEN

Action Proposed Because Rejected Ballots of Negroes Here Are Not Counted.

MANDAMUS SUIT FILED

Prospect Also of Legislature Reviewing Vote for Governor in State.

Action looking toward a contest for the office of Governor, to which Frederick D. Gardner appears to have been elected on the face of the unofficial returns, was begun today by St. Louis Republican workers, who charge that Gardner's plurality is due to the intimidation of negro voters here by policemen and Democratic election officials.

Former Judge Henry Lamm of Sedalia, Republican nominee for Governor, will be called to St. Louis within two or three days, to confer with the Republican leaders for a contest. It was announced today.

As a foundation for a contest, a mandamus suit was filed in the St. Louis Court of Appeals today by Joseph H. Smith, a negro voter, of 224 Bowen street, to compel the judges and clerks of the Fifth Precinct of the Twelfth Ward to count six rejected ballots, all said to be Republican.

The suit was filed by Edward Foristel, Seldon P. Spencer and Forrest Donnell, representing the Republican State Committee.

The St. Louis Election Board decided yesterday, by a tie vote, that it had no power to order a count of the so-called rejected ballots which precinct election officials put aside in envelopes. These ballots, which are believed to be about 100 in number, were nearly all those of negroes, and are believed to be for the Republican ticket.

The Democratic members of the Election Board, while they say the rejection of the ballots was improper, held that they had no authority to count the ballots, and that only the Legislature now has the right to give any orders which would affect the count on the vote for Governor.

The mandamus suit in the Smith case is intended to show whether the Election Board is right in holding that it has no power to compel the counting of rejected ballots. If the courts should sustain the board, the only recourse for the Republicans would be a contest before the Legislature, which is Democratic in both branches.

State Chairman Hukriede said today that he did not know what Judge Lamm thought about the contest idea.

Foristel said he was sure Judge Lamm would favor a contest. City Chairman Schmitt said the question of a contest would lie with the State Committee, but added that he hoped St. Louis voters, regardless of party, would protest against the methods used at the election.

Later, he said, the city committee may take some action, though it has no immediate object to gain as to local offices. All the Republican local candidates except Jones, for Circuit Attorney, were elected, and Jones lost by a heavy margin that the rejected votes would not help him.

Gardner's plurality, on the unofficial returns, is now running as low as 350, and the counting of the rejected St. Louis ballots, with other corrections made by the official count, might turn the scale against him.

Condemned Election Day Methods. Election Commissioner Sidney S. May, a Democrat, said at the board's meeting yesterday, as he said to a Post-Dispatch reporter on election day, that the methods employed by Democratic election officials to deprive these negroes of their votes were unjustifiable. He said their votes were unjustifiable. He said he and Chairman Drabell of the board, also a Democrat, did their best to put a stop to the use of these methods on election day, but that the election officials disregarded their plain orders.

May described the methods by which these votes were rejected. Challengers in polling places, he said, would have lists of names, showing negroes who were supposed to be disqualified from voting because they had been convicted of various offenses.

If a challenger had the name "Cooper" on a list, he would challenge any negro who appeared to vote under the name of Cooper. It was the duty of the election officials in such cases, May said, to throw the ballot in the waste basket and require them to say that they knew the man had been convicted of some offense. Instead of doing this, he said, the Democrats would vote to reject the ballot, the Republicans would vote to accept it, and a tie resulting, the ballot would be put aside in an envelope. The ballots are still in these envelopes, and none of them has been counted in making up the returns on national or local offices or the Governorship.

Count of Votes Reopened. George B. Webster, a Republican lawyer, appeared before the Election Board yesterday afternoon and demanded that these envelopes be opened and the votes counted. John M. Cashman, a Democratic lawyer, objected, and said that under the law only of Legislature now had a right to review the vote for Governor. The board, he said, had no power to do anything affecting the count on the Governorship.

Drabell and May took this view. Commissioner Buder, a Republican, then moved that the judges of election, in all precincts where ballots had been put aside be summoned, and questioned as to their recollection of the ballots, and that the votes should be counted according to their recollection, without opening the envelopes. Buder and Secretary Wright of the board, who was appointed as a representative of the Progressive party, voted for this motion, and Drabell and May against it, so that it was lost.

Wright, speaking on this motion, charged that the action of the chalgers and election officials was a carrying out of "the most brazen scheme to rob voters of their rights ever attempted in the history of the city." He said the precinct election officials paid no attention to the orders of the Election Board.

May confirmed the latter part of Wright's statement, and said that when the Board learned on election day of the tactics which were being used, an order was sent out that no challenge should be heard unless the challenger were placed under oath. No attention was paid to this order, so far as he could learn, May said.

May said that, in his opinion, 2000 negroes were kept from voting by the tactics employed. There is no way, however, to count the votes of those who, for fear of trouble, stayed away from the polls altogether.

ADVANCE BRIGADE OF "WHITE" ARMY EVACUATES SAN BENITO

"Brown," Theoretical Mexican Army Progresses in Invasion of United States.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Nov. 17.—The advance brigade of the "white" army, defending the United States from invasion by the "brown" army that theoretically has crossed into this country from Mexico, today evacuated the city of San Benito, 19 miles north of here.

The brigade was threatened by the approaching 10,000 men of the invading force under command of Brigadier-General H. A. Allen.

The "brown" army broke camp at Olmito, 11 miles from San Benito, early today. It moved along the main Brownsville-San Benito highway, taking possession of the railroad and stations as it progressed. The first outpost of the "white" forces was encountered late yesterday by a regiment of "brown" cavalry, which was reconnoitering. The "white" were driven back.

Lawyer Acts for Illinois Couple Held in Connection With Daughter's Death.

PONTIAC, Ill., Nov. 17.—Jacob G. Diemer, wealthy farmer, who, with his wife and daughter, Magdalena, are held under bond pending investigation into the death of Christine Diemer, another daughter, has engaged a lawyer and, either this afternoon or tomorrow the body of Christine will be taken from the grave in the City Cemetery and a second autopsy held.

Bert W. Adair, attorney for the Diemers, whose idea the second autopsy is, said today that this time two physicians would make the examination.

The attorney reiterated the theory that the girl killed herself during an irrational moment. Dr. J. B. Mitchell, who was present at the first autopsy, was quoted as expressing the opinion that the members of the girl's family were not guilty. "It is murder at all," "Personally, I think it was suicide," he is quoted as having said. "I think the girl jumped into the Vermillion river while suffering from an attack of a nervous affliction."

Autopsy Physician's Opinion. Dr. A. B. Middleton, who performed the autopsy, declared that, in his opinion, the girl's body was thrown into the Vermillion River not more than three days before it was found. This would apparently establish a lapse of nine days from the time of her disappearance until the body entered the river.

Investigators are trying to find some trace of the girl's wanderings between the time she disappeared and the day her body was recovered. She disappeared from the Diemer home Oct. 27 and her body was found in the Vermillion River Nov. 8.

Search for Blue Suit. A second search for the blue serge suit which vanished when Christine disappeared will be made, Sheriff Lee announced. He was not satisfied with the failure to find the missing clothing and declared he would have the river dragged again and would appeal to the officials of the Chicago & Alton to search their right of way for some trace of the missing clothing.

GETS JUDGMENT FOR $3900 DAMAGES IN FARM TRADE

Illinoisman Says Irrigation Ditches on New Mexico Place Tapped

DRY RIVER BED. Elias C. Allen, who traded a farm in Southern Illinois for one in New Mexico, got a judgment for $3900.57 against the other trader, Christian Finkle of Nashville, Ill., in the Federal Court in East St. Louis, yesterday.

Allen told about looking over the New Mexico farm before making the trade. He noted that it had plenty of irrigation ditches, so he closed the deal. But when he afterward went to New Mexico to farm, he said, he waited for some time for water to appear in the ditches, but it never came.

So he followed the ditches to their source, he said, and discovered that instead of tapping three reservoirs, as he had supposed, they tapped a dry river bed. He then filed suit for damages.

B. M. L. DELEGATION ATTENDS FARM SHOW IN NEW ORLEANS

St. Louis Business Men Guests at Luncheon of Association of Commerce and a Banquet.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—Edward P. Hidden of the Business Men's League of St. Louis delivered the principal address at the banquet last night to St. Louis and Chicago business men by local citizens. The Chicago and St. Louis party, which arrived on the new Panama Limited train of the Illinois Central, had previously been taken over the city on an automobile ride. Today the men were entertained at a luncheon at the Association of Commerce and this afternoon visited the National Farm and Livestock Show.

The greater number of the St. Louis people will leave for home tonight. They are greatly pleased with their trip and say better business relations will result between New Orleans, St. Louis and Chicago as a result of the trip.

OSBORNE TO AID NAVY

Daniels Asks Sing Sing Warden's Help in Discipline.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Thomas Mott Osborne, former Warden of Sing Sing, has undertaken a study of prison conditions in the navy, to recommend a reform system of administration. Osborne agreed to make the study at the request of Secretary Daniels, who wants to inaugurate reform methods in handling and treatment of prisoners at navy stations.

TWELVE MEN ARE ARRESTED

Century Electric Plant Worker Complaints of Attack.

Twelve men, said to be striking employees of the Century Electric Co., Nineteenth and Pine streets, were arrested near the plant today on suspicion of knowing something of an assault upon George E. Strubhart, an employee of the electric company. Strubhart informed the police that he was beaten by men at Twenty-second and Olive streets, when passing there on his way to work. He was not badly hurt.

HUGHES' MINNESOTA LEAD 94

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 17.—The Hughes lead suffered a severe cut today with the addition of official returns at the capital from 19 more counties and official returns from Hennepin. This made the Wilson total 192,132 and Hughes 182,346 and left the Hughes plurality at 94.

PRESIDENT SETS NOV. 30 AS DAY OF THANKSGIVING

Proclamation Executive Asks for Sympathy for Europe's Stricken People.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—President Wilson, by proclamation, today formally designated Thursday, Nov. 30, as Thanksgiving day.

"The President's proclamation says: 'It has long been the custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His many blessings and mercies to us and the nation.'"

"The year that has elapsed since we last observed our day of thanksgiving has been rich in blessings to us as a people, but the whole face of the world has been darkened by war. In the midst of our peace and happiness, our thoughts dwell with painful disquiet upon the nations at war and of the people upon whom war has brought disaster without choice or possibility of escape on their part. We cannot think of our own happiness without thinking of their pitiful distress."

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do appoint Thursday, the thirtieth of November as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer and urge and advise the people to resort to their several places of worship on that day to render thanks to Almighty God for the blessings of peace and unbroken prosperity which He has bestowed upon our beloved country in such unimpaired measure."

"And I also urge and suggest our duty, in this our day of peace and abundance, to think in deep sympathy of the stricken peoples of the world upon whom the curse and terror of war has so pitilessly fallen and to contribute out of our abundant means to the relief of their sufferings."

"Our people could in no better way show their real attitude towards the present struggle of the nations than by contributing out of their abundance to the relief of the suffering which war has brought in its train."

Norwegian Steamer of 639 Tons Is Sunk. LONDON, Nov. 17.—The Norwegian steamer Ullvang, of 639 tons gross, has been sunk, Lloyd's shipping agency announced. The crew was landed.

The Norwegian steamship Torridal has been sunk according to an announcement at Lloyd's Shipping Agency. It was also reported that the British steamship E. Mattarazzo had been abandoned by her crew.

A. F. OF L. OPPOSED TO WILSON'S ANTI-STRIKE LEGISLATION

Resolution Declares Against Proposal of First Investigating Committee of Case.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 17.—The American Federation of Labor by a unanimous vote today declared against that provision of President Wilson's legislative program "making illegal any railroad strike or lockout prior to the investigation of the merits of the case."

The committee report which was adopted recommended that the convention "take an unequivocal position against compulsory institutions and in favor of maintenance of the institutions and opportunities for freedom."

"The convention had before it that section of the executive council's report dealing with the Railroad Brotherhood's threatened strike."

"This effort to again subject wage earners to involuntary servitude has aroused the determined resistance of wage earners generally," said the report.

KILLS SELF AT LINCOLN'S TOMB

Man Who Cut Throat Found by William Marion Reedy and Party.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 17.—While Yachel Lindsay, Springfield poet, was showing William Marion Reedy of St. Louis, and Edgar Lee Masters, the Chicago poet, Lincoln's monument at noon today the party walked around the structure to look into Lincoln's tomb. They found the body of a man who apparently a few minutes previously had cut his throat with a razor.

ADAMSON ADDRESSES BUSINESS COUNCIL

Predicts Speedy Action by Congress to Make Big Railroad Strike Impossible.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Before a special meeting of the National Council of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States today, Representative Adamson, author of the so-called eight-hour railroad law, and vice chairman of the Congressional Committee about to investigate the whole subject of transportation, predicted that, without waiting for the committee's report, Congress would speedily enact legislation to make impossible such national paralysis as was threatened a few months ago. The council is holding a special meeting to discuss the railroad situation as affected by the Adamson law, as a preliminary to the beginning of the congressional investigation.

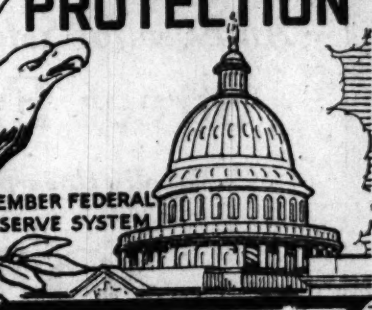

Adamson declared the law was within the enacting power of Congress and denied that it was an act to regulate wages instead of one to fix hours of employment. He said he did not personally believe in Government ownership of railroads or in any attempt to consolidate the regulatory power into Federal hands to the exclusion of state commissions. He said also that in his opinion the railroads should not be charged with disloyalty for combatting an act of Congress, and that they should have their day in court.

"If the people of the country can't pass laws that will pass muster in the Supreme Court," he said, "you can't blame the railroads for fighting. Both parties in this controversy, however, seem to forget the master. They forget they are public servants and can't make a fight that will stop the interstate commerce of the country. Congress reminded them of that when the people determined to prevent interruption of public business." Both sides in the recent controversy, he said, "employed 'barbarous methods.'"

Adamson said that capitalists who control the railroads forget many were built with funds from the people and that "the people never asked the capitalists to buy all the railroads and speculate on them."

Charles R. Van Hise, president of the University of Wisconsin, attacked the Adamson law.

"Why may the same men not come back in two years, when another Congress is to be elected, or in four, when a President is to be elected, and say, 'Gentlemen, if you do not pass a law providing time and a half for overtime we shall strike,' said he. 'It is inevitable that if there is not remedial legislation this situation will arise again.'"

Writings of Boston Teacher for Northcliffe Offended Other Americans in London.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—Acting on instructions from the State Department, Ambassador Page has taken an American passport from D. Thomas Curtin of Boston, where he formerly was a high school teacher, who for several weeks has been filling many columns of the Daily Mail and the Times with accounts of his impressions after eight months in Germany.

It is understood that Curtin expects to remain in England, but the attitude of the British authorities heretofore has been that no foreigner could remain in the country without a passport. Curtin was informed that he could obtain an emergency passport to return to America if he left Saturday.

In his first article in the Daily Mail Curtin avowed he went to Germany to obtain "naval and military" information for Lord Northcliffe.

Strong protests were made to Ambassador Page by Americans here, who declared that Curtin had misused his passport and had embarrassed other Americans trying to get to Germany. Curtin ridiculed American correspondents in Germany in one article.

CUT THIS OUT

Old English Recipe for Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises.

If you know someone who is troubled with head noises, or Catarrhal Deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them, and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. Recent experiments have proved conclusively that Catarrhal Deafness, head noises, etc., were the direct cause of constitutional disease, and that salves, sprays, inhalers, etc., merely temporize with the complaint and seldom, if ever, effect a permanent cure. This being so, much time and money has been spent of late by a noted specialist in perfecting a pure, gentle, yet effective tonic that would quickly dissipate all traces of the catarrhal poison from the system. The effective prescription, which was eventually formulated, and which has aroused the belief that deafness will soon be extinct, is given below in understandable form, so that anyone can treat themselves in their own home at little expense.

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Per-mint (Double Strength), about 15c worth. Take this home and add to it 4 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take two tablespoonfuls four times a day.

The first dose will begin to relieve the distressing head noises, headache, giddiness, clouding vision, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. In the back of the throat are other symptoms of the catarrhal poison, which are often entirely overlooked. The same treatment, therefore, there must be many people whose hearing can be restored by this simple home treatment.

Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness, or Catarrh in any form, should give this prescription a trial.—ADY.

ONE DETECTIVE SHOOTS ANOTHER, WHO MAY DIE

H. B. Trafton Wounded Twice by Frank Florence, Both of East St. Louis.

Henderson B. Trafton, an East St. Louis city detective, who was shot twice by Assistant Chief of Detectives Frank Florence, at Second street and Missouri avenue, East St. Louis, last night, was in a serious condition today at Deaconess Hospital. One bullet entered the abdomen and the other the left elbow. Physicians said his chances for recovery were slight.

Assistant Chief Florence, an hour after the shooting, went to police headquarters, but he was not placed under arrest. He returned this morning and resumed his duties, but he refused to discuss the shooting, or events leading to it. Shortly before noon the State's Attorney ordered his arrest, and he was released on $2500 bond, signed by two saloon keepers.

Nearly Wounded Serious.
Reporters were not permitted to question Trafton at the hospital, because of his serious condition, but his physician, Dr. R. L. Campbell, repeated Trafton's version, as given to him by the wounded detective.

This was that Florence had fired without provocation. Trafton was walking with Detective Sam Ryckman at 11:45 p. m., when they met Assistant Chief Florence and Detective Jerry Baxter. He told the physician that Florence called him aside and accused him of having designs on his job as Assistant Chief of Detectives.

Trafton said he denied this, and that Florence ordered him to hold up his hands and be searched. He said he clinched with Florence, to prevent the Assistant Chief from taking away his revolver, and that Florence then shot him.

Ran Three Blocks.
Trafton, although wounded, ran three blocks east, until he met a newspaper reporter with whom he was acquainted. The reporter sent him to the hospital.

Florence, it was said, drove away in his automobile, and about an hour later appeared at the police station.

Florence formerly was Chief of Detectives, and later he was reduced. Two years ago Mayor Hollman created the office of Assistant Chief of Detectives, and Florence was promoted. Recently there was talk in the department that Florence was to be reduced and that Trafton was seeking promotion. Florence has been in the department 12 years. He is 49 years old and lives at 48 North Twenty-second street. Trafton is married and has been in the department 13 years. He is 47 years old and resides at 1610 Ohio avenue.

Detectives Ryckman and Baxter were suspended for failure to make a report on the shooting.

A Feature of the School Teachers' Convention

Through special arrangements we have provided for an intensely interesting and instructive Lecture by Dr. Charles William Wallace, Ph. D., of London, on New Shakespeare Discoveries from English Archives.

This Lecture will be given at 2 p. m. Saturday in our Auditorium, Sixth Floor. There will be no charge.

Aside from this, visiting school teachers will find many points of interest in this great institution, and store conveniences of which we invite you to make free use.

St. Louisans take a personal pride in the far-famed house of Scruggs-Vandervoort-Barney, and visitors from all over the country are impressed with its completeness (more than one hundred Specialty Shops) and the atmosphere of friendliness and welcome that pervades it—the store of old-fashioned courtesy, but thoroughly modern in equipment and service.

You will not derive full benefit from your visit to St. Louis if you do not make a tour of inspection at

BENJAMIN GRATZ WITHDRAWS RESIGNATION FROM THE B. M. L.

Acts When He Finds League Did Not Circulate Anti-Prohibition Resolution.

Benjamin Gratz has withdrawn his resignation as a member of the Business Men's League, which he tendered as a result of the adoption by the Executive Committee of the league, before the recent election, of a resolution opposing prohibition.

Before his departure for New York on a business trip yesterday it was learned that he resigned because of the widespread distribution, just before the election, of marked copies of newspapers which contained the text of the Executive Committee's resolution. He was under the impression, his friends say, that the league was responsible for the circulation of the marked newspapers throughout the city and State, and withdrew his resignation only when assured that the league had nothing to do with their circulation.

Although not a member of the Executive Committee of the league, Gratz opposed the adoption of the resolution, which won in the committee by a vote of 40 to 3. Gratz is a member of the firm of Warren, Jones & Gratz, agents for the American Manufacturing Co.

ALL AMERICAN AMBASSADORS AND MINISTERS WILL RESIGN

This Is According to Custom, Though Many Will Be Requested to Remain in Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—In accordance with custom in the diplomatic service, all American Ambassadors and Ministers abroad are expected to resign as a sequence to President Wilson's re-election and succession to a new term.

Many of them were appointed originally without special knowledge on their part of the peculiar requirements of their posts. Some had no intention of remaining abroad more than four years. In other cases, some who expected to make even shorter stays abroad, have from force of circumstances, especially the exigencies of the war, continued at their posts only to meet the wishes of the State Department.

That a considerable number of the incumbents will be asked to remain in office is a certainty, but some do not wish to remain and some have proved unequal to the heavy requirements of their stations.

Indicted for Vote Fraud.
HILLSBORO, Ill., Nov. 17.—W. E. Newsome, former Mayor of Coffeen, was indicted by the Montgomery County grand jury here yesterday on 15 counts, charging that he marked ballots in the election Nov. 7 while acting as a judge in a Litchfield precinct.

Cabinet Meeting in Held.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—President Wilson held a meeting of the Cabinet today for the first time in more than two months. Secretary Lansing said he had no new information on submarine activities on which any action by the American Government could be based.

BIG CELEBRATION FOR WILSON IN WASHINGTON

Parade of 10,000 and Fireworks
Features of Fete Over President's Re-election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Bombs were exploded over the White House last night, but instead of dropping deadly missiles they showered many-colored fire in celebration of the President's re-election. While they were being dropped, admirers of the executive by the thousand marched in review.

More than 10,000 were in the procession which marched from the Capitol to the White House grounds, to the music of many bands and waving red lights. The President and Mrs. Wilson and a party of relatives on the northern portico of the White House, fronting on Pennsylvania avenue, reviewed the procession and listened afterward to a chorus of 800 voices in "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Dixie" and other patriotic songs.

The sidewalks along the line of march were packed with spectators and street cars were stopped in the thoroughfares traversed by the parade. The head of the line of marchers came into the White House grounds and President Wilson shook hands with the grand marshal. A Civil War veteran, dressed as "Uncle Sam," headed the line and suffragists carrying a banner bearing the words, "We did it" were in line. Secretary Tamm led those who were on foot.

A reviewing stand, outside of the White House grounds accommodated Secretaries Lansing, Baker and Field, members of their families and other ranking Government officials and municipal officers.

THERE are many styles in Hart Schaffner & Marx overcoats this fall and winter; many fabrics, many colorings, many designs and models; and some men like one and some another. We have them all here; you choose for yourself.

There is any kind of coat you may desire; motor coats, plaited or belted coats, box and form fitting coats, single and double breasted coats; the famous Varsity Six Hundred overcoats in many variations, Chesterfields, surtouts.

It's a wonderful collection of fine, high grade overcoats, such as you'll not find the equal of anywhere.

$18 $20 $22.50 $25 $30 $35 $40 $45 and $50

Special styles for young men

THIS store is famous for its distinctive styles for young men; the famous Hart Schaffner & Marx Varsity Fifty Five suits and Varsity Six Hundred overcoats are designed for the spirited, lively tastes of young men. Beautiful fabrics, new color combinations, any number of style ideas—you'll like this service.

"I dare you to give me the kind of clothes I've been getting," said a prominent man to us the other day.

He had been going to tailors and paying $100 or more for his clothes.

He was the most surprised man in town when we started showing him our Hart Schaffner & Marx Suits at $40 to $50.

"I didn't know you could buy such clothes as these ready-made," was his remark "and such assortments."

He was still more surprised when he saw himself in the mirror. He walked out with the Suit and saved about $50.

Clothes for hard-to-fit men

ONE feature of our success is in fitting men of unusual build; stout men, short men, extra tall large men. Hart Schaffner & Marx have provided suits and overcoats for such figures that fit, and that have the same smart style we offer other men. Let us show you what our expert fitters can do.

KIMBROUGH STONE FOE OF EASY DIVORCES

Man Slated for U. S. Judgeship Broke Up Independence Court
as the "Missouri Reno."

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 17.—Dr. J. L. Marshall, pastor of the Wabash Avenue Christian Church, has this to say of Judge Kimbrough Stone, son of Senator William J. Stone, whose appointment as United States Circuit Judge, to succeed the late Judge Elmer B. Adams, virtually is assured: "He is one of the most progressive churchmen I ever knew. He took hold of our Men's Bible Class and doubled its enrollment. More than 125 men now attend Sunday school each Sunday."

Judge Stone is 40 years old. He is a graduate of Harvard. After coming here he often aided his father in his hottest political fights, in many instances using more diplomacy and better judgment than the older man. He is said never to lose his temper. As a "mixer" he has made friends for both himself and his father.

While being a genius for politics, he has always said he would never be a candidate for office, and that there was more money, more fun and less trouble and anxiety in the law. He has never run for office. He was appointed to the Circuit Judgeship at Independence. As Circuit Judge, he became known for his fight against easy divorces. As a result of this Independence, formerly known as Missouri's Reno, became the most unpopular town in the State as a divorce mecca.

About a year ago Stone thought of resigning from the bench and returning to private practice, but changed his mind, giving the health of his family as his reason. Mrs. Stone was very ill at the time.

When Stone was 22 years old he was associated with his father in the practice of law in St. Louis. The elder Stone was interested in an organization known as the National Health Society, with a Missouri branch, which was created to fight the repeal of a law, the passage of which was procured by the so-called Baking Powder Trust, which prohibited the use of alum in baking powders.

Young Stone was sent through the State by his father to start prosecutions against manufacturers for the violation of this law. It developed that the Missouri branch of the society was chiefly William J. Stone, and that D. J. Kelly, representing the trust, had been the national organizer. Later it was shown that many members of the Missouri Assembly had been bribed. John A. Lee, former Lieutenant-Governor, resigned from office after Kelly accused him of having distributed money to prevent the repeal of the alum law.

UNITED RAILWAYS SELECTS MILL TAX CONFEREES

Richard McCulloch, Murray Carleton and A. L. Shapleigh will meet City Officials next Wednesday, Richard McCulloch, general manager, and Murray Carleton and A. L. Shapleigh, directors, will represent the United Railways Co. in conference with city officials on the subject of the mill tax and the duration of the corporation's underlying franchises, next Wednesday. It is expected that the discussions of the company's proposals and the city's counter propositions will require several weeks before a bill embodying a compromise is introduced in the Board of Aldermen.

Mayor Kiel, Comptroller Player and Acting President Hall of the Board of Aldermen, who are members of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment, will be the city's conferees. They will be advised by Director of Public Utilities Hooks, City Counselor Daves, C. E. Smith, consulting engineer of the Department of Public Utilities, and Chairman Gregory and other members of the Aldermanic Public Utilities Committee. In a letter written several weeks ago to City Counselor Daves, H. S. Priest, general counsel for the United Railways Co., declared that the traction company could not pay the mill tax and its obligations to bondholders and make improvements.

OFFERS $25,000 ON ENDOWMENT FUND FOR THE PILGRIM CHURCH

Mrs. Lamira W. Kehlor Specifies Congregational Congregation Must Raise a Similar Amount. Mrs. Lamira W. Kehlor of 6 Vandewater place, widow of James B. M. Kehlor, wealthy East Side flour miller, has offered to give $25,000 to the endowment fund of the Pilgrim Congregational Church, provided another $25,000 is raised for the same purpose. This announcement was made by Julius C. Birge at a men's dinner at the church, Union boulevard and Kensington avenue, last evening.

The pastor, the Rev. Dr. S. H. Woodrow, plans the raising of a fund of about $50,000, in celebration of the church's fiftieth anniversary, next month. This $50,000 will include a $50,000 endowment fund, to insure the future work of the church, and about $15,000 for other purposes, including the paying off of an indebtedness. Besides Mrs. Kehlor's conditional pledge of $25,000, the church expects to realize several thousand from a recent conditional legacy. Mrs. Kehlor was the largest individual giver to the fund for the construction of the present church building, assuming the cost of the tower, which is known as the Kehlor tower.

PETITION FOR WOMAN REFEREE

Appointment in Juvenile Court Suggested by Federation of Clubs. A petition urging Circuit Judges to act on the Juvenile Court for a continuous period of two years, instead of six months, as at present, is being circulated by the Women's Council, a federation of 65 women's clubs. The petition asks the Juvenile Court Judge to have a woman referee, appointed from among probation officers, to assist in privately hearing cases of girls. The petitioners are in the charge of Mrs. Aaron Rauh, chairman of the Civic Committee, and Mrs. Gus V. R. Meehn, president of the Women's Council. They will be presented to the judges for their decision in December.

ROBBER TAKES MAN'S OVERCOAT

Watchman's Face Cut Because He Is Slow in Removing Garment. William Slater, 73 years old, a private watchman, living at 456 Wichita street, had no money to give when a negro accosted him at Fourth and Plum streets at 11 o'clock last night, so he was forced to part with his overcoat. Because he was slow in removing the garment he was slashed across the face with a knife. Duell Cull, 311 South Garrison avenue, was robbed of $5 by two negroes at Twenty-second and Morgan streets. Carl Grafen, who gave his business address as Seventh and Walnut streets, reported that he was robbed of a watch and $15 by a highwayman at Third and Chestnut streets.

Chicago & Alton Officials Hold Semi-Annual Meeting Here

Traffic and operating representatives of the Chicago & Alton Railroad Co. held their semi-annual meeting in St. Louis last Sunday and Monday. The present car shortage, adjustment of freight and passenger schedules, service in general and other topics of interest to the employees in the various territories of the company were discussed. S. Q. Lutz, general traffic manager and X. H. Cornell, general superintendent, presided at the meetings. It was announced the plan of such meeting would be extended to the employees in many other departments of the company and regular monthly sessions would be arranged for in the large terminal cities of the system.

E. A. HILDENBRANDT DIES

DENTIST TELLS HOW BAD TEETH CAUSE DISEASES

Rheumatism, Heart Palpitation and Kidney Trouble Sometimes Start in the Mouth.

MUST CARE FOR MOLARS

Expert Says They Should Be Cleaned and Examined Regularly Every Few Months.

If you have rheumatism, neuralgia, heart palpitation, stiffened knee joints or kidney trouble, and if your physician cannot effect a cure—don't give up hope, but see a dentist! So say dentists attending the sixtieth anniversary meeting of the St. Louis Dental Society, now in session at the Planters Hotel.

Dr. Weston R. Price of the Research Institute of the National Dental Association, Cleveland, who was the principal lecturer at the opening session yesterday, outlined to a Post-Dispatch reporter the present status of knowledge of the relation of mouth infection to systemic disease.

Dr. Price declared that the increase of knowledge along this line within the past few years was one of the greatest advances made in dentistry in modern times. He pointed out that the dentist of today does not merely fill teeth—he seeks to correct the patient's general health by proper supervision of the care of the teeth. Disease of the teeth often affects the body seriously, Dr. Price declared.

Value of Cleaning Teeth.
The teeth should be carefully kept—cleaned daily, and examined by a reputable dentist every few months, he explained. A yearly visit to the dentist is not enough, and this is the reason:

The mouth is constantly filled with germs. One of these lodges on a deadened nerve, or at the apex of a tooth, and pus is formed. The pus, being unable to work itself out of the tooth, becomes absorbed into the blood and travels to various parts of the body.

Shortly afterward the patient may begin to suffer from rheumatism, heart palpitation, stiffened knee joints, or kidney trouble, perhaps, as the germs are selective, and seek affinitive tissues in the body, the dentist stated.

And this, Dr. Price continued, is the result of not having the teeth examined frequently by a dentist who is competent to discover such pus formations. In a year's time, he declared, this pus will have time to enter the system.

That these germs in the mouth cause such ailments has been proved in the following manner:

Germs from the pus in the gums have been injected into rabbits for three generations, and each has suffered from the same ailment troubling the patient.

Opportunity for Germs.
Lack of care of the teeth causes germs to lodge, the bone to decay, thus giving an excellent opportunity for disease germs to lodge and breed and enter the system.

This can always be observed by the dentist. But sometimes when a patient is suffering from rheumatism, and the regular physicians can effect no cure, a dentist will be called in and thus get at root of the disease.

An examination of the teeth may reveal no seeming cause of the disease—possibly there is no pain or swelling in the gums, but X-ray examinations of the jawbone may possibly show cinders of infection.

Perhaps the tooth is decayed. In that case it is either filled or extracted. The extraction of a certain affected tooth has been known to cure rheumatism in 10 days, and the draining of pus formations has stopped heart palpitation in a week or so, Dr. Price claims.

Dr. Price told of one woman suffering from neuralgia who visited him to have her teeth examined. He noticed neuralgia spots on her neck, and began to ask about her general health. She became indignant, saying that her physician attended to that.

But when she admitted that the physician had not cured the neuralgia she submitted to a thorough examination of her teeth and jawbone—and the result was that a certain tooth was attended to, certain pus formations drained, and the neuralgia disappeared.

Good Dentistry Not Cheap.

"Let me impress upon the people of St. Louis that good dentistry cannot be got cheaply," Dr. Price continued. "The dentist of today is more than an extractor of teeth—he in a certain manner supervises the health of his patient by keeping the teeth and gums in a healthy condition."

"And the modern dentist does everything in his power to save the natural teeth. Brushing the teeth daily is not the only duty devolving upon the patient—he should have them cleaned and examined several times a year."

HURT IN AN AUTO COLLISION

R. B. Roth Held at Hospital—Policeman's Son Not Arrested.

Ralph B. Roth, a buyer for the Ludlow-Saylor Wire Co., living at 451 Washington boulevard, was injured last evening in a collision at Taylor avenue and Papin street between his automobile and one owned by Patrolman Edmond Shelton of 447 Maffitt avenue. Shelton's car was driven by his son, Charles M. Shelton, 18 years old, a police telephone operator.

Roth was taken to the Barnes Hospital, where it was found that his right leg was fractured. He was ordered held a prisoner. Shelton was not arrested.

BAKERY FAILURES IN BROOKLYN

Seventy-Seven Said "to Have Been Forced Out of Business in Three Weeks."

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Seventy-seven bakers have failed in the last three weeks in Brooklyn, according to officials of the Brooklyn Route Bakers' Association, on account of increase in the cost of materials and labor. The association members plan to baking a 21-ounce loaf for 15 cents, instead of an 18-ounce loaf for 10 cents.

Just a Wife

(Her Diary)

CHAPTERS FROM A BRIDE'S LIFE STORY

Edited by Janet Trevor.

Chapter LXXXIX.

EC. I—I understand how and why I must keep on living. Ned needs me.

Did mother have one of the premonitions of the dying in that last talk we had together? I remembered, and wondered, when Ned and I had our long talk after we came home from her funeral.

At first we were silent in the twilight for I could not speak. All at once, surprisingly, Ned asked: "Mollie, how would you like to leave New York?"

"When? Why?" I half stammered in my amazement.

"Right away," he replied. "As for the reasons, Mollie, I'm afraid to stay." Then explanation came in a torrent, and so many puzzles of the past were made clear to me.

"Mollie, I have done those things which I ought not to have done," Ned began unsteadily. "Once you saw me when I had drunk too much. That same thing has happened on other occasions. What is infinitely worse is that I have been a victim of the drug habit."

"You remember I told you that I was working on a book which dealt with the treatment of drug victims. At first I only studied my patients. Then I decided to test the potency of certain opiates on myself. It was a mad thing to do, but I believed in my own strength."

"I managed to keep down the dosage, but for weeks and months I took some of the stuff. My nerves and my temper suffered. I was partially doped when that taxi knocked me out a month ago."

"Talbot got on to the state of affairs when he examined me at the hospital. For a month I've been under his care. The habit had not acquired a fatal grip on me, and for the present I'm free."

"But I want to go where the stuff is less easy to get. I want to go where life is simpler, where I won't be tempted to play around with men and women richer than I. I want to cut out the Wall street gambling. Will you go, now that"—he hesitated—"there is nothing to keep you here?"

"Tell me one thing, Ned," I answered. "Have I the right to go with you? Is there—anyone else?"

"You are the only woman I love, or have loved, since I've known you," he answered steadily. "I have said and done some things I want to forget when I was not myself. But you are my love, my wife."

"Then I will go," I told him.

"Our destination, for which we start in a few days, is a quiet little town in the Middle West, where a classmate of Ned's tells him there is an opening. Nellie is going to give up my old home and live in a little apartment with Mary to take care of her. She plans to take the course in kindergarten work, for she says she wants to do something with her life."

Somewhat I am less unhappy than before Ned told me of his secret struggle. I am leaving the old landmarks behind me, including this diary, for I shall not write in it any more. But my feet are on firm ground and I have a goal—my husband's well-being and happiness. I am no longer a happy but rather a less bride. I am a wife."

New Recipes

Date Tapioca—One quart hot milk, 4 tablespoons tapioca, speck salt, ½ cup sugar, 3 eggs, 1 cup chopped dates, 3 tablespoons pulverized sugar. Scald the milk in the top of a double boiler, then add the tapioca and sugar and cook for 15 minutes; at the end of this time, add the yolks of the eggs (which have been mixed together), stirring constantly, and cook for three minutes. Remove from the fire, cool slightly, then add the chopped dates. Turn into a pudding dish, cover the top with the whites of the eggs, which have been beaten very stiff, with the pulverized sugar, and bake in the oven until brown across the top.

Stuffed Carrots—Take some good-sized carrots; after washing them well and cutting off the green tuft cut each one across about 2½ inches from the leaves. Scoop out the inside yellow part, leaving a case of the redder part and a piece to form the bottom at the smaller end. Then stew the cases very gently till a little tender, but not quite soft. Take them out of the water, drain them and then, placing each on its small end, fill with hot chopped mushrooms that have been tossed in butter. Arrange in a circle on a dish and garnish with small sprigs of carrot leaves or brown leaves. Save the inside you have scooped out of carrots for soup flavoring.

Pieplant—One peck green tomatoes, 8 large onions chopped, add 1 cup salt, let stand all night and in the morning drain. Take 2 quarts water, 1 quart of vinegar, add tomatoes and onions and boil for ¼ hour; drain through a colander, then take 2 quarts vinegar, 3 large cups brown sugar; put in a muslin bag ½ pound white mustard seed, 2 tablespoons green peppers, 3 tablespoons cinnamon, 1 of cloves; boil all together 10 minutes, then add tomatoes and onions; cook until tender.

The Wrong House.

IN a recently published book, Sir Henry Lucy has a charming story of the late Canon Ainger. The canon was very fond of children, and set out one night to attend a party given "by children for children."

"Don't announce me," he said to the servant. Leaving his coat and hat downstairs, he quietly opened the drawing room door, where the buzz of voices announced the presence of company. Dropping on his hands and knees he entered, making strange noises distinctly resembling the neighing of a horse. Aware of a silence, he looked up and found the guests assembled for an 8 o'clock dinner regarding him with disgust not unmitigated with alarm.

The children's party was next door.

Suggestions for Xmas Shopping

IF YOU desire to do your Christmas shopping in comfort do it now. All the shops are making extensive displays in holiday goods. If you purchase now you will have the advantage of unhurried articles and you can secure the undivided attention of the salespeople, who can aid materially in your selections.

There is the business woman. She must do all her shopping during the lunch hour and on Saturday afternoons. For her there is not an over-abundance of time between now and Christmas to look around and make her decisions, as is the way of women. So she should begin now to do her looking around. She will find all stocks filled with fresh goods and she will find opportunities for securing good values that even in a fortnight hence may be lacking.

Many gift-seekers have the pernicious habit of handling articles displayed, and nowhere is this more prevalent than in the book department. Dainty gift-books are thus made impossible to the discriminating purchaser. Likewise calendars, and, by the way, the shops are showing a new line of practical calendars. There is the household calendar with a daily hint for the housewife that may solve many a perplexing housekeeping problem for her. Then there is one with daily recipes for desserts. Another gives a daily menu for luncheon with a recipe for preparing one of the dishes mentioned. The newlywed or the prospective bride might appreciate either of these.

A novel calendar in the shape of a football has a daily suggestion for the football player. Then there is new idea in the daily engagement calendar. These are just the things for the "little remembrance," and prices range from 24 to 48 cents. They are new and in good condition now and the assortments are unbroken—points conducive to early buying.

Handkerchiefs likewise are best selected early. Most shops are making special displays in handkerchiefs, so there is a wide choice for selection. There are those with colored borders and the plain white with embroidered corners. The crepe and chiffon handkerchiefs have taken third place as staple articles and those now exhibited are extremely pretty.

Fashion's Choice

DO YOU KNOW WHY NOT ALL ROSES ARE WHITE?

Folklore Speaker Relates That Eve Caused Some to Blush—
—Legends of Missouri.

Folklore was the theme of discussion by teachers attending the Missouri State Teachers' convention, at the tenth annual meeting of the Missouri Folklore Society, a department of the teachers' association, in Central High School yesterday. Miss Mary A. Owen of St. Joseph, president, read the principal paper, "Folklore of Flowers That Grow in Missouri." Italian folklore tales, gathered in the north end of Kansas City, were read by Miss Rala Glaser of Kansas City; a paper dealing with the history of St. Genevieve was read by Mrs. Edward Schaefer of St. Mary; some Indian legends were given by Dr. W. L. Campbell of Kansas City. A round-table discussion of children's games, conducted by Miss Leah R. C. Yoffie of St. Louis, brought the program to a close.

Eve and All Roses.
Miss Owen explained why not all roses are white. In her childhood, she was told that "when Eve reached for the forbidden fruit some of the roses saw her and hung their heads and withered."

Miss Kitty O'Brien explained where, in the lore of her childhood, the roses thorn originated.

"An angel came to earth and lay down for a nap under a rosebush," she said. "He was awakened by bees stinging him. Becoming angry, the angel struck the stings on the rosebush, and thus we have the thorns."

Pontiac of the Ottawas, who was buried at what now is Fourth and Walnut streets, was so fond of the odor of sweetwistlers that the good St. Anne, his friend, lined his grave with them, Miss Owen related.

"Which," she continued, "is the basis for a legend among the Pottawatomie Indians that every year the fragrance of the flower comes up through the stones from Pontiac's grave."

Miss Owen told the legendary story of the origin of the moccasin flower, the crypsemum aculeatum.

Long ago, she said, a young Indian brave, while hunting, was caught in a sudden downpour of rain. He sought shelter under a tree and saw a large bubble come down in the waters. The bubble burst and a beautiful girl stepped forth. When he questioned her she said she could not tell whence she came.

"But I have come to bring you fortune," she said, and went with him to his wigwam. She cautioned him never to let the light of the sun or of the moon fall upon her or she would be lost to him.

How Happiness Was Lost.
The lived happily for a time, but one day, after a weary hunt, the brave left

HEARING ON BILL TO CREATE A FREE BRIDGE COMMISSION

Board Would Regulate Roads and Create Traffic Zone on Both Sides of River.
Representatives of the Real Estate Exchange, Merchants' Exchange, and other organizations, attended a public hearing before the Public Utilities Committee of the Board of Aldermen and urged the passage of a bill establishing a new Municipal Bridge Commission with authority to fix rules and regulations for the use of the free bridge, issue licenses to railroads, and to create a "traffic zone" on both sides of the river.

YOUTH RUN DOWN BY AUTO DIES

Lloyd Brown Hit by R. A. Komers Car on Oct. 13.
Lloyd Brown, 16 years old, of 4212 Grand street, died at the city hospital yesterday from injuries sustained Oct. 13, when he was run down by the automobile of Robert A. Komers, 7200 Sarah street, Maplewood.

Komers was arrested at the time of the accident and released on bond.

KANSAS DOCTOR FOUND GUILTY

Was Tried for Selling Habit-Making Drugs Illegally.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 17.—Dr. C. L. Katz, a wealthy Wichita, Kan., physician, was found guilty by a Federal Court jury yesterday of illegally selling drugs in violation of the Harrison anti-salt-tolite law. Sentence was deferred. Katz was arrested last May with the aid of his alleged agent, Mrs. Helen Jones, after the woman had been arrested and confessed.

Mrs. Jones said she was acting as Katz's agent here and was paid to get customers for him. It is alleged Katz did business from Omaha to St. Louis.

Cheap Food Menu Proposed.
CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Mayor Thompson and Health Commissioner Robertson have appointed a committee of 10 food experts to map out a diet at the lowest possible cost and employ 10 inspectors to ascertain the reasons for the recent rise in prices.

The Mayor, Comptroller and Director of Streets and Sewers would constitute the commission which the bill would create. "This commission would have authority to establish a 'traffic zone,' including territory on both sides of the river, and would issue revocable licenses to railroads using the bridge. It is proposed to require railroads to give bonds of $100,000 each to insure compliance with the rules and regulations framed by the commission."

U. S. ASKED TO TRY TO STOP DEPORTATION OF BELGIANS

Minister Havenith says, in Memorandum, They Virtually Are Made to Fight Against Own Country.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—That Belgians virtually are being compelled by the Germans to fight against their own country, contrary to the law of nations and humanity, is the charge made by Belgian Minister Havenith in an appeal to the United States to undertake to stop the deportation of his countrymen by the Germans. Charge Grew of the American embassy at Berlin already has been instructed by this Government to take up the situation personally with Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg.

Minister Havenith, in a memorandum to the United States Government, says that thousands of Belgians have been taken to Germany and put to work in quarries, lime kilns and concrete factories on the pretext that they are a charge on public charity. It is contended that the employment of Belgian labor releases a large number of German workmen who are sent to the front to fight.

The Minister contends that the idleness of Belgians in their own country is due to the fact that their factories have been stripped of machinery and that their raw material has been taken by the Germans.

AUSTRALIA COAL STRIKE SERIOUS

1500 Establishments Have Been Closed in New South Wales.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—A Melbourne dispatch to Reuters says that the coal strike in New South Wales, where the Government, under the new emergency powers, is assuming control of the electric and gas supplies with a view to conserving them for necessary industries. Fifteen hundred establishments, including newspapers and various offices, employing 20,000 men, have thus far been closed.

15,000 CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY IN NEW ORGANIZATION

Said to Represent $8,000,000,000 Capital and to Have 6,000,000 on Payrolls.

MEMBERSHIP AND AIMS

Formed Since Demands of Railway Men for Eight-Hour Day Were Made.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The promoters of the National Industrial Conference Board, which, they say, has 15,000 captains of industry in its membership, with $8,000,000,000 capital and 6,000,000 workers on their payroll, spent some time yesterday behind closed doors at the Astor following adjournment of the convention of the parent body, the National Founders' Association.

A proposal to fight the eight-hour day at the coming session of Congress, it is said, was one of the topics most discussed at the board's meeting. Walter Drew, counsel for the National Erectors' Association, which has been taken into the new organization, denied that the National Industrial Conference Board had been organized particularly to fight the eight-hour day. Many members have been opponents of the eight-hour movement and minimum wage legislation.

Board's Membership.

Following is an official list of the board's membership, each subsidiary body being entitled to two representatives on the governing committee:

National Industrial Conference Board—Chairman, Frederick P. Fish of Fish, Richardson, Herrick & Neave, Boston; executive secretary, Magnus W. Alexander, General Electric Co., West Lynn, Mass.

National Council for Industrial Defense—Chairman, John Kirby Jr., president Dayton Manufacturing Co., Dayton, O.; general counsel, James A. Emery, Washington.

National Association of Manufacturers—President, George Pope, Hartford; Stephen C. Mason, McConway & Torley Co., Pittsburgh.

National Founders' Association—President, William H. Barr, president Luman Beating Co., Buffalo; Magnus W. Alexander, General Electric Co., West Lynn, Mass.

National Metal Trades Association—President, W. H. Vandervoort, president Root & Vandervoort Engineering Co., East Moline, Ill.; Herbert S. Rice, General Motors Co., Detroit, Mich.

National Erectors' Association—Chairman, S. P. Mitchell, president Seaboard Construction Co., Philadelphia; Walter Drew, general counsel, New York.

National Association of Cotton Manufacturers—President, A. Farwell Bemis of the association, president Bemis Bros. Bag Co., Boston; Albert G. Duncan, Harmony Mills, Boston.

American Cotton Manufacturers Association—President, John A. Law of the association, president Saxton Mills, Spartanburg, S. C.; Ellison A. Smith, president Peltier Manufacturing Co., Greenville, S. C.

Silk Association of America—President, Charles Cheney, treasurer Cheney Bros., South Manchester, Conn.; Robert J. F. Schwarzenbach of Schwarzenbach, Huber & Co., New York.

United Typothetae and Franklin Clubs of America—President, Albert W. Finlay of the association, president George H. Ellis Co., Boston; E. Lawrence Fall, president Franklin Printing Co., Philadelphia.

American Paper and Pulp Association—President, Arthur B. Daniels, president L. L. Brown Paper Co., Adams, Mass.; C. A. Crocker, president Crocker-McElwain Co., Holyoke, Mass.

Rubber Club of America—President, Harvey S. Firestone, president Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., New York; Frederick C. Hood, treasurer Hood Rubber Co., Watertown, Mass.

Have Had 8-Hour Strikes.

The National Metal Trades Association and the National Erectors' Association have had many bitter eight-hour strikes in the last three or four years. Officers of the Metal Trades organization recently denounced the eight-hour demand as "a national menace." The General Electric Co. fought employees' demand last fall for an eight-hour day, compromising on nine and one-half, with a wage advance.

It is known that the work of getting members for the conference board was in progress last April, after announcement of demands of railway brotherhoods for an eight-hour day. On Sept. 21 two weeks after President Wilson had signed the eight-hour bill, a notice was circulated among members describing the conference board as "a co-operative body composed of representatives of national industrial associations, organized to provide a clearing house of information, a forum for constructive discussion and machinery for co-operative action on matters that vitally affect the industrial development of the country."

Aims of the Conference.

The aims stated were:

"To stimulate the keen interest and active assistance of employers toward constructive study and equitable solutions of industrial problems."

"To foster the maintenance of harmonious relationship between employer and employee and between both and the Government."

"To assist in the formulation and enactment of sound and constructive legislation."

"To oppose the passage of unsound and unfair laws, and to urge the amendment or repeal of impracticable and unjust statutes.

"To secure proper co-operation between the Government and industry."

"To create a general realization of the national benefits of industrial prosperity to employer, employee and consumer, and a better understanding of industrial questions and their relationship to the public welfare."

"The organization of the Conference Board," said the circular, "was prompted in part by the conviction that an unsympathetic and often hostile public attitude exists toward industrial enterprise and its executives, stimulated in the past by isolated instances of abuse of power by a few employers, but often unjustifiably extended to employers as a class. This attitude finds expression in unreasoning restriction, legislation, excessive industrial unrest, discourages individual effort and checks industrial development. It deprives employers, employees and the public of the fruits of the nation's almost unlimited opportunities due to the wealth of its natural resources, the freedom of individual development of its people and the inherent initiative and acumen of its business leaders."

The National Founders' Association convention adopted yesterday a resolution that "the right to have their cause determined by judicial proceedings should be sacred to the railway systems of the country and this association approves their attitude in the maintenance of that right."

The resolution said the Adamson law sought to compel the railways to raise wages, "under the pretense of compelling an eight-hour work day."

Permanent Democratic Headquarters.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and Homer Cummings, vice chairman, conferred with President Wilson today and arranged to establish here permanent headquarters for the Democratic National Committee.

TWO RECEIVERSHIPS ASKED FOR

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 17.—Insurance Commissioner J. Dennis O'Neil believes that $1,000,000 will be lost by the 70 or more stockholders in Pension Mutual Life Insurance Co. of London. Almost all insurance, corporate infants of Lyndon D. Wood of Philadelphia. O'Neil has asked for receiverships for both.

Among the policy holders in the Pension Mutual are 1000 postoffice employees in Philadelphia and several hundred Philadelphia policemen. Almost the entire membership of the Pittsburgh police department is concerned through insurance on pension policies with Wood's company.

NOBODY CAN TELL IF YOU DARKEN YOUR GRAY, FADED HAIR WITH SAGE TEA

Druggist Says that Sage Tea when Mixed with Sulphur Prevents Dandruff and Stops Falling Hair.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added then left to age and carefully filtered will turn gray streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss. Some druggists make their own, but it isn't nearly so nice as Wyeth's.

While wispy gray faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur no one can tell because it does it so naturally; so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Do this tonight and by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, after another application or two it will be restored to its natural color and be even more glossy, soft and luxuriant than ever.

Local druggists say they are selling lots of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur," it surely helps folks appear years younger.—ADV.
